4. No punishment specified in clauses (a1), (a2), (ia), (ii) and (iii) of sub-rule (1) of rule 3 shall be imposed on any Police Officer unless a departmental inquiry into his conduct is held and a note of the inquiry with the reasons for passing an order imposing the said punishment is made in writing under his signature.

5. The officers specified in column 1 of schedule I to these rules shall have power to inflict punishments of the kind specified in column 3 thereof on the officers specified in column 2 thereof, subject to the restrictions laid down in column 4 thereof.

6. Every Police Officer on whom any of the punishments specified in clauses (a-1), (a-2), (1), (ia), (ii) and (iii) of sub-rule (1) and in clauses (vii) and (viii) of sub-rule (2) of rule 3 is inflicted shall have a right to appeal to the authority specified under rule 9 against an order of the punishment:

Provided that no second appeal shall lie under this rule.

7. No appeal shall lie against an order inflicting any of the punishments specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of sub-rule (2) of rule 3.

8. Every person preferring an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name.

9. (1) The authorities specified in column 2 of schedule II to these rules shall be the authorities to which appeals against the orders made by the officers respectively specified against them in column 1 of the said schedule shall lie.

(i) if the Board consisted of two Deputy Commissioners of Police, then to another Deputy Commissioner of Police specially empowered by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Act and who has not in any manner dealt with the case;

(ii) if the Board consisted of one Deputy Commissioner of Police and one Assistant Commissioner of Police, then, to another Deputy Commissioner of Police specially empowered by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Act and who has not in any manner dealt with the case;

(iii) if the Board consisted of two Assistant Commissioners of Police, then to another Assistant Commissioner of Police or a Deputy Commissioner of Police specially empowered by the Commissioner of Police in this behalf under sub-section (2) of section 10 of the Act and who has not in any manner dealt with the case.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, where an appeal is made to any appellate authority other than the State Government or the Inspector-General, the Inspector-General may, for promoting the ends of justice or tending to the general convenience of the appellant or witnesses or officers concerned, of his own motion or otherwise, transfer such appeal for disposal to any other appellate authority competent to entertain the same.

13. In every case in which an appeal is withheld, the appellants shall be informed of the fact and the reasons therefor.

14. No appeal shall lie against the withholding of an appeal by an appellate authority :

Provided that where an appeal is withheld on account of failure to comply with the provisions of rule 10, it may be re-submitted in a form which complies with that rule within one month of the date on which the order of withholding was communicated to the appellants.

15. The appellate authority shall consider —

(a) whether the facts on which the order was based have been established ;

(b) whether the facts established afford sufficient ground for inflicting punishment ;

(c) whether the penalty is excessive, adequate or inadequate ;

and if it thinks necessary may require the authority passing the order to make further inquiry on any point or points specified and shall then pass such orders as it thinks just and proper, including the enhancement of any punishment given, or the awarding of a more severe punishment :

Provided that a punishment shall not be enhanced, or a more severe punishment awarded, in appeal, unless notice to show cause against such enhancement, or as the case may be, more severe punishment, has been given, and any cause shown thereon considered.

16. The authority from whose order an appeal is made under these rules shall give effect to any order made by the appellate authority.

The Inspector-General of Police may, for good and sufficient reasons to be recorded in writing, order the transfer of proceedings pending against a Police Officer under these rules from one Enquiry Officer to another. The Enquiry Officer to whom the enquiry is transferred shall hold the proceedings de novo.

17. (1) The Inspector-General of Police may, of his own motion or otherwise, call for and examine the record of any case in which an order has been made by an authority subordinate to him in the exercise of any power conferred on such authority by these rules and in which an appeal lies or any case arising under these rules in which an order of acquittal (whether an original order, order in appeal or order in revision) has been made by such authority and may —

- (a) confirm, modify or reverse the order, or
- (b) direct that further enquiry be held in the case, or
- (c) reduce or enhance the punishment inflicted by the order, or
- (d) make such other order in the case as he may deem fit :

Provided that where it is proposed to enhance the punishment inflicted by any such order or to impose punishment by setting aside the order of acquittal, the Police Officer concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed enhancement or punishment.

(2) Every application for revision shall be made within two months of the date on which the applicant was informed of the order complained against. The Inspector-General may, in his discretion, for good cause shown, relax that period.

18. Notwithstanding anything containing in rule 17, the State Government may, of its own motion or otherwise, call for and examine the record of any case in which an order including an order of acquittal (whether an original order, order in appeal or order in revision) has been made by an authority subordinate to it in the exercise of any power conferred on such authority by these rules and may —

- (a) confirm, modify or reverse the order, or
- (b) direct that further inquiry be held in the case, or
- (c) reduce or enhance the punishment inflicted by the order, or
- (d) make such other order in the case as it may deem fit :

Provided that where it is proposed to enhance the punishment inflicted by such order or to impose punishment by setting aside the order of acquittal, the Police Officer concerned shall be given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the proposed enhancement or punishment.

19. (1) Where no appeal lies against any punishment inflicted by an authority competent to do so, his immediate superior officer may, of his own motion or otherwise, call for the record of any case in which an order has been made by such authority and may —

- (a) confirm, modify or revise the order, or
